

Land for sale in Pinoso, Alicante

43,200€

This is a well-located, buildable plot of land just 4 km from the town of Pinoso. The property is surrounded by other houses and has easy access. It includes irrigation water and already has a water meter installed on-site, making it convenient for agricultural or residential use. An electricity connection point is available nearby, which simplifies the process of setting up utilities. The land also features approximately 60 mature olive trees, offering potential for small-scale farming or personal use. About the Area Pinoso is a growing town known for its peaceful setting and welcoming community. It offers a range of amenities including supermarkets, restaurants, schools, and healthcare services. The area is popular among both locals and international residents who value the balance between rural life and access to everyday conveniences. Being just a short drive from the town, the property provides a quiet environment while keeping essential services within easy reach.
