

Land for sale in Torrox, Málaga

148,500€

This magnificent plot of over 8,500 m² offers an ideal natural setting for those looking to enjoy the countryside and agriculture. Strategically located between the picturesque villages of Torrox and Frigiliana, it combines the tranquillity of the rural environment with proximity to all amenities.

The plot has fruit trees in full production, including approximately 280 avocados and 570 mangoes of different varieties, guaranteeing excellent profitability in fruit harvesting. It also has water from the irrigation community, ensuring adequate irrigation throughout the year.

From the plot, you can enjoy stunning views of the mountains, making it a place of great charm and enormous potential, both for agricultural use and for those who want a natural retreat surrounded by fruit trees.

Don't miss the opportunity to discover this farm with great potential and excellent growing conditions.
