Cozy Country Cottage With Land For New Build in Encebras, Pinoso

This charming 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom country cottage is nearly complete, with just the second fix required to finish. Nestled in the desirable hamlet of Encebras near Pinoso, the home overlooks the valley in a truly stunning area, with uninterrupted countryside views.

Unusually for the region, this is one of the very few properties that enjoys all-day sun, making it the perfect spot to soak up the Spanish lifestyle year-round.

The cottage sits on protected land, ensuring peace and privacy, while also offering plenty of scope to expand. There is room to build up to 130 sqm on a single level, or create a two-storey property for even more living space. The plot also has ample room for a swimming pool, giving you the chance to design your dream retreat in one of the most sought-after areas near Pinoso.

Beyond the property itself, life in Encebras offers a true taste of traditional Spain. Surrounded by vineyards, almond groves, and rolling hills, it's a paradise for walkers, cyclists, and nature lovers. The nearby town of Pinoso is well known for its friendly community, excellent local restaurants, weekly market, and vibrant fiestas — the perfect blend of authentic Spanish charm and a welcoming expat scene.
