ROJALES Rojales, in the province of Alicante, is a charming village situated along the Segura River and known for its rich agricultural history. Although it is not a mass tourist destination, its appeal lies in its tranquil atmosphere and its proximity to popular coastal areas. Tourism in Rojales focuses on its cultural heritage, such as the Rodeo Caves and its natural surroundings, ideal for walks and hikes. Its proximity to the beaches of the Costa Blanca, such as Guardamar del Segura, adds to the region's appeal. The lifestyle in Rojales is peaceful and rooted in agricultural tradition. Residents value calm, communal living and local festivities. The gastronomy is notable for regional dishes, with Mediterranean influences and fresh local produce. Rojales offers a quiet, rural atmosphere for those seeking a peaceful life in a natural environment close to the Mediterranean coast.
