

2 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Torrox, Málaga

172,000€

This magnificent village house is located in the historic center of Torrox, one of the most emblematic whitewashed villages of the Costa del Sol, renowned for its authentic Andalusian charm and for enjoying the best climate in Europe. Nestled in a quiet street in the old town and just a few steps away from a large free parking area, the property combines the convenience of its location with the character of traditional village life. Thanks to its privileged setting and elevation, it boasts spectacular panoramic views stretching across the village, the surrounding mountains, and the Mediterranean Sea in the distance.

With a built area of 106 m², intelligently distributed across three floors, the house offers bright and functional spaces designed for everyday living. The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hall leading into an open-plan kitchen with dining area, perfectly integrated to maximize space. On this level there is also a practical pantry and a fully equipped bathroom, providing additional comfort for daily use.

The first floor is dedicated to the main sleeping area, comprising a double bedroom with built-in wardrobe and the master bedroom, which enjoys direct access to a balcony overlooking the charming streets of the historic center. A spacious family bathroom with shower completes this floor, conveniently serving both bedrooms.

The top floor presents a versatile and light-filled space. A cozy living room with a small kitchenette and a designated office area make this level ideal for relaxation or remote working. From here, you step out onto a private terrace, the true heart of the house, perfect for unwinding or entertaining family and friends. An external staircase leads up to a second roof terrace at a higher level, offering breathtaking views and providing the perfect setting for al fresco dining while enjoying the mild Mediterranean evenings throughout the year.
