

5 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Los Villena, Alicante

549,950€

Nestled in the heart of Villena's old town, right beneath the iconic "La Atalaya" castle, lies a truly extraordinary home. This is no ordinary property—it's a traditional cave-house of the historic "Rabal" quarter, blending centuries-old charm with modern comforts. The highlight is its unique swimming pool, built directly into the natural cave, where water, stone, and lush greenery create a magical and refreshing oasis.

Villena itself is known as the capital of inland tourism in Alicante, a city steeped in history and culture. Perfectly located between Spain's central plateau and the sparkling Mediterranean coastline, it has always been a crossroads of civilizations. Its rich architectural heritage and important monuments testify to its historical significance.

The property enjoys an unbeatable location within the Rabal quarter, just a two-minute walk through charming streets to reach the Plaza Mayor—one of Villena's main squares. The area is alive with restaurants, tapas bars, and cafés. On the way to the square, you'll even find a spot dedicated to craft beers, while just a short stroll uphill brings you to the visitor reception center, the starting point for tours and castle visits.

Inside, the house offers spacious living areas designed for comfort and enjoyment. A dining area and a fully equipped kitchen open onto a terrace with sweeping views over the old town. With four bedrooms, including one with a bunk bed, the property easily accommodates families or groups. The outdoor barbecue adds another layer of charm, making gatherings in the yard unforgettable. Alicante-Elche Miguel Hernández Airport is only 56 km away, making travel easy and convenient.
