

3 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Torre de la Horadada, Alicante

229,000€

This very nice corner villa offers spacious private living just a short walk (200m) from the stunning sandy beach of Torre de la Horadada in a quiet residential street, with restaurants, walks and sports centres all nearby. The villa enters into a spacious corner plot with drive; plenty of space for terraces and a pool if required. There is a covered porch area leading to the front door which enters into a spacious living/dining room, it is an L shaped room where a downstairs bedroom has been incorporated into an open plan space; it is furnished with pine furniture; sofa, armchair, coffee table, tv unit and ceiling fan. The dining area is table, chairs, and a dresser. There is a small hallway off the living room which leads to a fully fitted and equipped kitchen with hob, oven, extractor, fridge freezer and washing machine, it leads out to an outdoor utility area with plenty of space to extend the kitchen if needed. There is a bathroom off the hallway downstairs with wc, shower and vanity unit. The livingroom has an archway feature leading to a stairwell of cream silestone to the first floor; here there are 2 spacious double bedrooms; the first is a twin room with 2 single beds, bedside cabinets and fitted wardrobes. The second bedroom is a double bed with bedside cabinets and fitted wardrobes leading onto a large upper terrace with sea views. This villa is by the sea in Torre de la Horadada and close to the town of Pilar de la Horadada which is a busy affluent town with all amenities of restaurants, supermarkets, medical centres and shopping. Just 50 minutes from Alicante Airport and 35 minutes to Murcia International Airport, this villa is well connected, an ideal place to live or holiday. Highly recommended for viewing.
