

3 bedroom Country House for sale in Alora, Málaga

195,000€

In a secluded, mountain location and with expansive views, this traditionally built farmhouse offers excellent accommodation which still has the flexibility to change to suit your needs. Downstairs, there is a semi-fitted kitchen, an excellent dining room, with doors to the rear terrace and an archway through to the sitting room which has a feature fireplace. There is also a single bedroom and a bathroom with separate large shower. From the sitting room stairs lead to a massive open plan room, ideal as a studio, but which would easily divide into 2 bedrooms if required. It also has access to a super covered terrace with views to the Torcal mountains and El Chorro. The land is quite steep with a variety of Olive and Almond trees. There is a good well and Electricity is supported by solar panels which provide for the hot water and the house. The house did have a mains connection in the past, which could be requested again. The access is via a country track and the house is approximately 20 minutes drive from the towns of Álora or Cártama Estacion. For the past 10 years the house has been tenanted and whilst the interior is fine, externally the land needs a good tidy up! ref:APN6665
