

1 bedroom Apartment for sale in San Fulgencio, Alicante

105,000€

Apartments with Communal Pool in a Prime Central Location

This newly regenerated residential development in San Fulgencio offers a fantastic opportunity to purchase a fully renovated apartment in a well-established Spanish town just minutes from the Costa Blanca coastline.

Originally built in 2009 and now completely updated to modern standards, the project features 1, 2, and 3-bedroom apartments spread across only two floors — creating a low-density, private community atmosphere.

Perfectly positioned in the town centre, the complex is within easy walking distance of everyday amenities, making it ideal for permanent living, holiday use, or long-term rental investment.

Bright Layouts & Practical Modern Living

Each home has been thoughtfully designed to maximise space, natural light, and functionality.

Key features include:

Spacious, well-distributed interiors
Lift access throughout the building
Underground parking garage
Optional parking spaces from €7,000
Comfortable layouts suitable for individuals, couples, or families

These homes provide an affordable opportunity to enjoy modern living close to the Mediterranean coast.
