Doors from the kitchen lead to the rear terrace and cloakroom, and with direct access to the communal swimming pool.

On the first floor there are two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a full bathroom. One of these bedrooms has access to a private terrace.

The upper floor comprises the master bedroom and en-suite bathroom with large walk-in shower. Patio doors from the bedroom lead you to another private terrace.

In addition, there is an enormous under-build configured to include a garage with automatic doors, and an area set-up for relaxing and entertaining, air conditioning throughout, and many extras.

The property is a perfect lock-up-and-go for those seeking a holiday home in a great area close to the beach, or it would make a perfect home for all year round living.

Local Area

Vera is a small town approximately 10 km from the coast although the municipality extends to the sea shore where, a tourist settlement, known as Vera Playa, has been developed. Originally called Baria and located at Villaricos (Rich Village, due to the silver mining industry) Vera relocated in the 13th century. The Christian conquest in 1488, an earthquake in 1518 and the Moorish rebellion in 1568 have all contributed to the character of the town. Legend has it the old town was buried after the earthquake and that an arrow was fired. The existing town grew from where it landed.
