Orihuela coast

Orihuela boasts 16 km of coastline with 11 coves and beaches of fine golden sand bathed by the warm Mediterranean Sea. Its privileged geographical location and excellent climate allow for year-round enjoyment of its beaches and water sports. The beaches are recognized and accredited by the official Orihuela Costa certifications of the organizations and institutions that monitor and control quality standards. Blue Flags, "Q" for Tourism Quality certifications, and sicted distinctions position Orihuela as a high-quality tourist destination, boasting the highest number of awards per kilometer of coastline in all of Spain.

It is characterized as one of the main second home destinations on the Costa Blanca. This district is almost entirely
