

3 bedroom Cave House for sale in Raspay, Murcia

135,995€

Create Your Dream Cave Home with Spectacular Mountain Views – Raspay near Pinoso if you've ever dreamed of creating a truly unique home in the Spanish countryside, this is a rare opportunity waiting to be discovered. Located in the peaceful hamlet of Raspay, just a few minutes from the vibrant and welcoming town of Pinoso, this property sits on a generous 14,010 m² plot surrounded by open countryside, vineyards, and the most breathtaking panoramic mountain views. Properties like this are becoming increasingly rare to find, especially those offering two caves, a large plot of land, and such incredible views. Opportunities to create a bespoke cave home or lifestyle project like this are becoming harder to come by. The property features two traditional cave houses, full of character and potential. The first cave already offers a solid base, with three bedrooms, one bathroom, dining area, kitchen, and a lounge that has been added to the front of the cave. With some modernisation, this could become a charming and comfortable home while retaining the natural charm and insulation that cave living is famous for. The second cave is a complete blank canvas, ready to be transformed into something truly special. The space in front of the cave provides the perfect opportunity to create a modern open-plan living area with large windows to frame the incredible views, blending traditional cave character with contemporary design. With over 14,000 m² of land, there is also potential to further develop the property (subject to permissions), whether you dream of creating beautiful outdoor terraces, a pool area, gardens, or even a unique cave-style glamping retreat. Life here is about space, peace, and connection with nature. Imagine enjoying your morning coffee while watching the sunrise over the mountains, long summer evenings under the stars, and the simple pleasure of rural Mediterranean living. Just a short drive away, Pinoso offers everything you need — excellent restaurants, traditional tapas bars, local wineries, supermarkets, sports facilities, and lively fiestas throughout the year. For those searching for a lifestyle project, a unique home, or a countryside retreat with incredible
