Here you live in a residential area with a local character, away from the hustle and bustle of the coast, yet with everything within easy reach. For day-to-day living, the location is extremely convenient. Shops, supermarkets, restaurants and cafés are located approximately 1 km from the property. In Roldán itself, you'll find a selection of around 10 to 15 restaurants, bars and terraces. No mass tourism, but plenty of variety to live comfortably and enjoy Spanish life all year round. The location is a real asset. Within 15 to 20 minutes, you can be at the beaches of the Mar Menor and Los Alcázares. Cities such as Murcia and Cartagena are also easily accessible, as is Murcia Airport, making this location particularly attractive for both owner-occupation and rental. In terms of transport links, you're well catered for here too. The Balcón Mar Menor train station is about 4 km away, offering direct connections to Murcia and Cartagena, with further
