

3 спальная комната Деревенский Дом продается в Montes de Malaga, Málaga

173.000€

This Chalet rural retreat sits in the province of Malaga high in the hills within a plot of 60,000m² of land which consists of Carob trees, almond trees and olives. The property has uninterrupted views of the surrounding countryside and in the distance, Malaga city and sea views. The property is in need of reforming throughout but the 100m² structure is there ready to be planned out in to a country getaway, inside there is a rustic open fireplace and arched entrances which give the house some character and charm. The property has mains electric and well water so the amenities are ready to go, this really is a fantastic project in a stunning location for someone to put the mark on, and still only a half hour drive back in to the city of Malaga, well worth viewing.
