BENAHAVIS ....Villa

This Villa features five magnificent bedrooms that stand as a celebration of imperfection and a stunning architectural wonder.

The 523 m<sup>2</sup> contemporary-style villa sits on a 4,139 m<sup>2</sup> plot is nestled in the tranquil hills of Benahavis, this house beautifully combines the fluidity of water with a smartly passive design featuring high thermal mass exposed concrete.

Approaching the house through a manicured tree-lined driveway, you are greeted by a 500-year-old olive tree and a lush yucca, both bearing witness to the winds of the Andalusian plains. A natural bamboo bridge floats over water, leading to the grand entrance, where a breathtaking sight unfolds.

A magnificent 20-foot-tall ficus bonsai stands serenely in a reflective pool, playfully engaged with a waterfall and the filtered sunlight from a glass ceiling above.

A floating bridge connects the east and west wings, housing the private suites and a study adorned with memorabilia from around the world, including a piece of the moon. This residence caters to various interests, whether you're a football fan, a golfer, a music enthusiast, or a Tintin and Captain Haddock aficionado.

The main suite featuring two separate dressers. These dressers open up to a private garden with majestic conifers and the scent of wild jasmines, creating a royal dressing experience in front of a floor-to-ceiling back-lit mirror.

The shower area in the suite is nothing short of spectacular, boasting a retractable glass ceiling for a unique midnight
