A little about the area The spa town of Archena, a place of significant archaeological finds, is in the heart of Murcia's market garden country, surrounded by the mountains of the pretty Valle de Ricote and 23 kilometres from the city of Murcia. The region is known for its spa and the curative properties of its waters. In addition to its spa, Archena has plenty of pleasant places for walking, above all along the banks of the river Segura. With average temperatures of 18 °C, it is a good place to visit at any time of year. Places not to miss A good itinerary could begin at the Archena museum (it is also the tourist office), with an exhibition on the history of Archena, which goes back to the age of the Iberians. Archaeological remains of the Iberian culture are on show, such as the Warrior Vase. Next, you could explore heritage buildings such as the parish church, the Town Hall, or Villarías palace, which houses the quirky Esparto Museum. The tourist office organises guided tours that visit these spots, or old waterwheels and chimneys. Perfect for walking Another strong point of Archena is the pretty riverside walk along the banks of the river Segura, which at seven kilometres is the longest in the region. It not only features lush vegetation full of palm trees, but along the walk you can read poems about the route by the town's own poet, Vicente Medina. The poems are carved onto standing stones and refer to local people and customs. Hiking enthusiasts can also climb up to the mountainous area of El Ope to get the best views over the city. And naturally... the Spa Located two kilometres from the town, its medicinal mineral and thermal waters were already popular with the Romans over 2,500 years ago. It is a complex with hotels, thermal gallery, etc. There you can also find the church of La Virgen de la Salud (Our Lady of Good Health) and a charming old casino. Festas Holy Week is one of the most famous celebrations in Archena (the town even has a "Monument of the Nazareno"). But the best time of all to visit Archena must be when they celebrate
