

3 спальная комната городская тюрьма продается в Estepa, Sevilla

85.000€

Situated on a pedestrianised street with steps leading up to the property and parking close by. The property is located in an historical part of Estepa, in the province of Sevilla, Andalucia, Spain, and sits just below the beautiful Convent whilst being within walking distance to all the local amenities the town has to offer including shops, bars and restaurants along the cobbled streets. Once inside the property opens into a traditionally tiled entrance hall which leads to a central reception room. To the front is a good size living room and to the rear a nicely fitted kitchen with plenty of storage space and dining area. The kitchen opens out on to a courtyard which is partially covered patio creating a great space for summer dining. On the first floor the landing leads to two good size bedrooms at the front of the property with a central shower room and a third, air conditioned, master bedroom to the rear with a full ensuite bathroom and access out onto a private sun terrace. This is a lovely property in a popular town well worth viewing.
