This is one of our rustic plots in Andalusia. It is located between Cómputa and Torrox. This plot measures approximately 4906 m². It is reached via a partly concreted road, partly a dirt road. Part of the road is steep. The access road divides the plot into two parts. A quarter of the land is below the road, the rest is above the road in a strip upwards.

Water and electricity is currently not connected.

From the site there are panoramic views of the surrounding countryside, the Sierra Almijara mountains, the Sierra Tejeda mountains and the Mediterranean sea.
