Discover Casa Lucero – your dream retreat in the heart of the Alpujarra!

Located in the charming village of Busquístar, Casa Lucero is a spacious traditional Alpujarran house that combines rustic character with the potential to become a warm and lively home. Set on a picturesque street in the lower part of the village, the property enjoys uninterrupted views of orchards and majestic mountains, with no buildings in front to disturb the peace and connection to nature.

On the ground floor, you'll find a large kitchen with pantry – ideal for preparing delicious meals with local ingredients – a cosy sitting room with fireplace, perfect for reading or relaxing evenings, a full bathroom, and a spacious storage room with plenty of space for all your needs.

Upstairs, there are three generous bedrooms, several additional rooms that can be used as studies, meditation spaces or extra bedrooms, and a large living room filled with possibilities for family gatherings and entertaining.

But what truly makes Casa Lucero a rare gem is what lies beyond its walls:
It includes two private plots of land, both offering exceptional value.

The first, just steps from the house, is perfect for creating a vibrant garden, an organic vegetable patch, or a peaceful outdoor retreat.

The second, located near the river, is a larger plot with two terraces, fruit trees, olive trees, and a charming stone outbuilding – ideal for storing tools or even converting into a guest cottage or creative studio. The entire property is
