

3 спальная комната городская тюрьма продается в Antequera, Málaga

240.000€

This beautiful property sits within the village of Cartoajal which offers all the necessary local amenities including schools, banks, bar's and local stores whilst being surrounded by stunning Andalucian countryside. The property is detached and located on the corner of two streets which means this property has light flooding in from every angle and also has access at the side of the property to a covered parking area and a beautifully tiled patio. To the front of the property the gates lead in to a tiled front courtyard with traditional lemon tree and established planting. Entrance opens to a central hall which looks to a beautifully finished staircase with coloured glass windows which invite you in. On the left you have a large lounge dining room and on the right a very spacious kitchen diner with open fireplace, which really is the heart of the home, the ground floor also benefits from a full shower room. Up on the first floor the round staircase opens on to a bright landing and a full family bathroom with corner bath and 3 double bedrooms 2 of which are located at the front of the property with balconies, but the main feature is the stunning central balcony which looks out and over the spectacular countryside. This really is a lovely property which would make a very special family home just 10 minutes from historical Antequera in the province of Malaga. Andalucia, Spain.
