

5 спальная комната городская тюрьма продается в Martos, Jaén

85.000€

Large 5 bedroom, traditional townhouse property with a garden, is located in a sought after area of Martos in the province of Jaen in Andalusia, Spain. Entering the property, the ground floor layout starts with an entry lobby leading into the living room, another room off to the left and a kitchen attached to the back of the living room. Following through to an outdoor covered space with access to a toilet, an utility / storage room then a second large living space with a balcony looking out into your garden. From the outside covered area, there is also a long hallway leading down into the lower ground floor utility space with a fireplace and a large brick built sink, there is also a corridor to two further rooms and access to a beautiful, long patio with a raised terrace at the back with a great storage space underneath. Back inside the property, in the first living room are the original stairs taking you to the first floor with an open hall / room from where you have a bedroom at the front and towards the rear, a hallway leads to a room off to the left and a large bedroom at the back with a bathroom attached. The stairs continue to the second floor where there is another bedroom at the front, a room to the right and another large room at the back. Work has been done with the intention of making three independent units within this one great property. Ask us for more information.
