Vibrant, contemporary, and thoroughly modern, the port city of Torrevieja enjoys an enviable beach front location that blurs the lines between metropolitan city centre living and Mediterranean resort-style beach life like few other European cities..Torrevieja boasts no less than 6 magnificent Blue Flag accredited beaches. Playa de Los Locos, Playa del Cura, Paseo Maritimo Juan Aparicio, Playa del Acequion, and Playa de Los Naufragos can be found in the city centre, and offer manicured stretches of unspoiled golden sand and a wealth of amenities. Hosting all necessary amenities including fantastic restaurants, local café-bars, bistros, supermarkets, local artisan shops and street markets, plus boasting fantastic water sports, nightlife and so much more. The city enjoys a beautiful Mediterranean climate, with temperate and thankfully short winters, combined with long warm summers that stretch all the way from April through to November most years Alicante-Elche airport is 40km's to the north, with Corvera-Murcia regional airport a little farther away 60 km's southwest. Both airports are comfortably reached within an hour by car.
