Torrevieja is a city in the province of Alicante in the region of Comunidad Valenciana in Spain. The city is a popular tourist destination which is approximately 40 minutes' drive from the city of Alicante and the airport. Torrevieja was originally a small fishing village, and is today one of Europe's largest salt producers. Torrevieja has previously been called the 'salt city', but in recent years the city has also been called the 'sports city', because of the large sports arenas that have been built in recent years. As a result of this fantastic investment, Torrevieja will be one of four organizing cities of the 2021 Women's Handball World Cup. When you live in Torrevieja, you are a short walk to white, elongated sandy beaches with a 'blue flag' stamp, as an indication of high water quality, among other things.
