140.000€

This detached Cortijo is situated in the sought after town of Santa Ana close to the historical city of Alcala la Real in the south of Jaen province in Andalucia, Spain. Located off a quiet road you enter the generous 3,806m² level plot through large double gates and a private driveway which leads first to a private swimming pool and an outbuilding then a number of olive trees. The driveway continues to a large raised front patio with far-reaching countryside views. From the centre of the patio you enter the Cortijo into the open plan lounge diner with a working fireplace and a tiled kitchen area with a breakfast bar. At present there are no bedrooms but you do have the opportunity to extend the property both above and to the rear where you have a large garden area and a fenced orchard with more outbuildings.
