Strategically located in a central area of Cuevas de San Marcos, in the desirable Málaga province, the property seamlessly blends significant business potential with the inherent beauty of the Andalusian setting.

A Layout Optimised for Profitability and Comfort:

Ground Floor: The main entrance leads into an elegant tiled reception hall which opens into a spacious central living area. This floor is perfectly suited for the social and operational needs of a B&B, featuring an exterior double bedroom, a separate dining room, and a well-equipped kitchen. The rear of the property extends into a series of interconnected courtyards, ideal for creating tranquil guest relaxation or service areas. Highlights include a substantial kitchen with a fireplace, multiple utility rooms, and a bathroom, offering flexible use and the potential for creating a self-contained apartment or staff quarters. An additional space accessible via a separate staircase is perfect for storage.

First Floor: A distinctive granite staircase ascends to a landing providing access to three double bedrooms and a generous bathroom. One of the bedrooms boasts a continuous Juliet balcony, offering captivating views of the village and the surrounding countryside. A practical additional space on this floor can be converted into a dressing room, ironing room, or storage, maximising convenience for owners or B&B services.

Second Floor: The staircase continues to the second floor, which hosts a further three double bedrooms. The main bedroom benefits from a fitted wardrobe and access to another continuous Juliet balcony with village views. A large area, currently a workshop, can be easily converted into a seventh bedroom, significantly increasing accommodation capacity. A clever use of the stairwell void provides a useful pantry.

Rooftop Terrace and Views: The crowning feature is the spectacular rooftop terrace, partially covered for shade and
