

Radhus till salu i Salares, Málaga

169.000€

This is one of our properties located in the picturesque village of Salares. This unfinished structure sits on approximately 1,560 m² of land, offering a fantastic opportunity to create a custom home or investment property. The building is partially constructed, allowing the new owner to finish it to their own taste and specifications.

In addition to the main structure, the property includes a spacious garage that could easily be converted into a guest apartment or used as secure parking. With its generous plot size and flexible layout, this property offers great potential in one of Andalusia's most charming white villages.
